NEW YORK, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1904.

LAST EDITION. DUNPHY IS REALLY OUT.

His Declination Filed with the Board of Police Commissioners.

EIGHTH NOW CLEAR FOR WALSH

Donegan Withdraws to Give Bradley a Good Chance for the Assembly.

OTHER STATE DEMOCRATS OUT.

They Are Dausch, for Assembly, and Tom Campbell, Grossman and Ryan for Aldermen.

The time for filing declarations of candidates regularly nominated by acknowledged political parties expired at midnight last night, and a batch of such documents were filed with Chief Clerk Kipp, of the Police Board.

With two exceptions, none of them has any significance. They were nearly all New York State Democracy men who had no earthly chance of winning, and were on Aldermanic tickets.

One declaration which attracts considerable interest, however, is that of Edward J. Dunphy, in the Eighth Congressional District. Mr. Dunphy is at present in the South, nursing his brother, who is said to be at the point of death.
He was nominated in perfect good faith by the Grace people, and had practically promised to run against "Jimmy" Walsh, the Tammany candidate. His declaration at this late hour prevents the possibility of any other candidate being nominated in his stead.

The reasons for Dunphy's withdrawal are said to lie in the resignation of Police Justice Divver from the leadership of the Second District.

Now that Divver is out, it is claimed Dunphy, who made a strong fight against him, will again be taken back into the organization, and will be recognized as a war hero.

He accepted the Grace nomination on other course would have been made possible.

It is understood that Nicholas T.
Brown, who has succeeded Divver as leader of the district, has extended the olive branch, and that Dunphy, who has been followed him have accepted it. The resignation, as it stands, leaves the way clear for the election of Walsh.

The only other withdrawal which caused any comment this morning was that of Donegan from Assembly.

Donegan was nominated by the Jefferson Club, and as Alderman Tommy Shells, of boodle fame, as against the Tammany candidate, Shells is himself running for Assembly.

A determined fight was to have been made on Donegan, but at the last moment it was decided to run William J.
Bradley in his stead.

Bradley is well known in the district.
He has a big personal following, and is indorsed by the Republican, Good Government Clubs, and the Independent Party. The full list of the declinations filed at Headquarters last night:

EDWARD J. DUNPHY, for Congress in the Eighth District, New York State Democracy.
HENRY P. DAUSCH, for Assembly, Ninth District, New York State Democracy.

THOMAS A. CAMPBELL, for Alderman, Ninth
District, New York State Democracy.
WILLIAM J. GROSSMAN, for Alderman, Fourth District, New York State Democracy.

BERNARD C. RYAN, for Alderman, Fourth District, New York State Democracy.
The following nominations to fill vacancies were also received:

WILLIAM J. BRADLEY, for Assembly, Fourth District, New York State Democracy.
JULIUS H. BLUMBERG, for Assembly, Fourth District, New York State and Empire State Democracy.

BENJAMIN HOFFMAN, for Assembly, Sixth District, People's Party.

Whatever other significance attaches to the above declinations hinges on the time at which they were presented.
The law provides that declinations of party nominees must be presented twelve days before the day of election, and independent declinations ten days before election day.

Politicians consider that if these declinations were presented late, then they were presented late, and the results devise still on the ticket.

If presented before midnight last night, then the declinations are all regular. The filing of the declinations is not regarded as the result of any deal. Blumberg, for Alderman, is now on three tickets.

GOFF MAY MAKE SPEECHES.

His Words Imply that He Has Yielded to Repeated Demands.

Although it is well known that the attention of Mr. Goff is pretty well taken up at the present time by his services as counsel for the Lexow Committee, considerable pressure has been brought to bear upon him by his political associates to enter the list of campaign speakers.

It has been strenuously represented to him that if he would make a few speeches upon the local administration of Tammany Hall and give his experience in his eloquent and forcible way, he would be rendering invaluable assistance to the Anti-Tammany movement.

Up to the present time, however, he has not responded cordially to the plea that his political engagements are so pressing that he would make no time to devote to politics, even in working for the ticket to which he is one of the leading candidates.

Mr. Goff was asked this morning whether or not it was his intention to make any speeches later in the campaign.

"I cannot say anything about that now," he replied, evasively. "I'm too

MR. CLEVELAND WILL NOT VOTE.

He Will Go to Washington To-Day and He Has Not Yet Registered.

NOR WILL HE INDOSE HILL.

CRANK GOERDELER VISITS HIM.

The Man Who Challenged Emperor William Demands an Audience with the Chief Executive.

It can be taken as almost a certainty that President Grover Cleveland will not register or vote in this city.

Dr. Bryant is authority for the statement that Mr. Cleveland will leave for Washington this afternoon.

As to-morrow and Saturday are the only days left for him to enroll his name.

Mr. Cleveland himself said this afternoon:

"My visit is almost at an end." That would seem to indicate that he does not intend to register.

Later this afternoon it was stated on excellent authority that Mr. Cleveland would not write a letter indorsing Hill.

The first campaign crank materialized this morning at the residence of Dr.
Joseph D. Bryant, where President Cleveland is stopping while in this city.

About 10 o'clock a well-dressed, heavy-set man, with a gray beard and wearing eyeglasses, rang Dr. Bryant's doorbell.

He told the servant who opened the door that he wanted to see the President.

The servant called Dr. Bryant, who came to the door, and who at once recognized the caller as Dr. Richard Goerdeler, whose eccentricities, both in this country and abroad, have caused him to be stamped as a harmless crank.

Dr. Bryant, politely, but firmly, refused to admit Goerdeler to the house.

Goerdeler became excited, and demanded to be shown in to the President at once.

"You have no right," he said, "to keep a citizen from seeing the President of the United States."

Goerdeler said he had been trying to see the President for nearly two years and have Mr. Cleveland remove the stain of insanity from his name. He began to tell about his having challenged the Emperor William to fight a duel, but Dr.
Bryant interrupted him and closed the door.

An "Evening World" reporter met Goerdeler at the foot of the steps, and to him Mr. Cleveland's would-be visitor poured forth a torrent of denunciation of Dr. Bryant for refusing him an audience with the President.

He gave the reporter his name, and said he lived at 414 West Fifty-seventh street. He went away without making any further attempt to see Mr. Cleveland.

Goerdeler has figured in the newspapers during the last few years as a harmless crank. He was formerly professor of music at Pennington Seminary in New Jersey.

He was once a lieutenant in the Prussian army, where he was brought into contact with Bismarck. When the American civil war broke out, Goerdeler learned, he says, that Bismarck had learned of music at the Southwestern University of Berlin.

The Berlin correspondent of The Telegraph hears that it is probable that only an ecclesiastical betrothal and exchange of rings occurred yesterday between the Czar and the Princess Alexandra.

Such a betrothal, according to the Eastern Church, is as indissoluble as a marriage.

A despatch to the Paul Mall Gazette from Yalta says that symbols of joy and sorrow jostle each other everywhere in that neighborhood. State carriages and regiments of troops for the Imperial marriage arrived at the same time as the mourning coaches and liveries of mourning which will be required in the event of the Czar's death.

fied by the expressions of sympathy upon the part of the Russian people.

SALESMAN GILROY—A B-e-a-utiful Fit, Father Knickerbocker! I Never Saw a Better!

O'BRIENITES ARE OUT.

The Police Board Refuses to Issue Certificates.

Candidates' Political Aspirations Finally Squelched.

They May Go to the Courts, but Won't Get a Reversal.

The Board of Police Commissioners in executive session this morning, which was called to consider certificates of nomination for city and county officers, rejected the certificate of nomination of Anti-Tammany candidates (O'Brienites) in nearly all the districts of the county.

President Martin stated in reply to a note sent in to the session room by an "Evening World" reporter, that the indorsements for rejection were that the indorsements did not subscribe to the oath.

In other words the certificates were irregular in the estimation of the Board for the reason stated.

The rejection of the certificates of nomination means that the Board will not print the tickets and there will therefore be no official ballots of the Anti-Tammanyites in the great majority of districts on election day.

Gen. Kerwin was seen personally with regard to the matter. He said that the Board had refused to print the tickets for the Anti-Tammanyites, but that he would be no official ballots of the Anti-Tammanyites in the great majority of
districts on election day.

The action of the Police Board disposes of the political aspirations of the Anti-Tammanyites, having their belief in legal opinion obtained to-day was to the effect that the O'Brienites had no response in the matter had not been decided upon yet.
